DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

--In claim 1, line 12, "the" before "secondary frequencies" has been deleted, and after "plasma", -- . -- has been added.

--In claim 3, line 2, after "reactive", --termination—has been inserted and in line 3, "match" has been changed to -matching--.

· Allowable Subject Matter

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art fails to disclose an RF power delivery system for plasma processing having, inter alia, a secondary reactive termination circuit connected between the output of the RF power generator and the input of the plasma chamber to allow the tight regulation or limiting of the voltage and current components of secondary frequencies within the process plasma (claim 1). The remaining claims 2-4 are allowed by virtue of their dependencies on the independent claim. Hence, the examiner has allowed claims 1 through 4.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably Art Unit: 2828 accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Knipp, Patent No. 5,288,971; Johnson, Patent No. 6,758,948; Doi et al., Patent No. 6,388,382; Williams et al., Patent No. 5,889,252; Benjamin et al., Patent No. 6,592,710; Khater et al., Patent No. 6,028,285; Stimson, Patent No. 6,345,588; Mintz et al., Patent No. 5,849,136; Carlile et al., Patent No. 5,339,039.

None of the above patents discloses the secondary reactive termination circuit as recited.
